Dear Dr. Santiago:

Thank you for your letter of October 2 concerning your visit to the University for preliminary discussions with me and others in the University community as we prepare for the upcoming decennial Middle States review in 2002/03.

As I believe Vice President Red Owl has advised you, we have already begun preliminary planning for the self-study. We will be sending three representatives to Philadelphia for the upcoming orientation workshop and are now in the process of establishing our self-study organization and process. Your letter comes at a good time, and it would be very helpful if you could schedule your visit to the University Center for Spring 2001.

I have asked Dr. Red Owl to be in touch with you to arrange a specific date for your visit and to coordinate the agenda with you. We all look forward to working with you as the University once again undertakes this important effort at self-reflection and peer review.

Sincerely,

David J. Steinberg
