Dear Ed:

With profound gratitude for the trust placed in me, I hereby give formal notice that I intend to retire at the end of the fiscal year, 2012-2013. The privilege you have accorded me is beyond compare and for over a quarter of a century I have given Long Island University every fiber of my being.

The Middle States cycle offers a natural transition point and now is the time for a new President to lead the University in different and exciting directions. With pride I will watch this next chapter unfold. I pledge my full support in any way my successor deems of value. I will miss the mission and, in particular, the people, and I will cherish forever the unique opportunity you have afforded me.

Cordially,

David J. Steinberg
