Long Island University, Brooklyn Campus School of Education Department of Counseling and School Psychology MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELOR ADVANCED CERTIFICATE (RE-SPECIALIZATION) PROGRAM (24 credits)

FIRST Semester (credits)

CSP 709: Research, Evidence-Based Practice & Program Evaluation (3)

CSP 712: Psychopathology & Psychopharmacology (3)

SECOND Semester

CSP 706: Foundations of Mental Health Counseling (3) CSP 661M: Mental Health Counseling Practicum (3)

THIRD Semester

CSP 665M: Mental Health Counseling Internship I (6)

FOURTH Semester

CSP 666M: Mental Health Counseling Internship II (6)

- This is a sample schedule; courses may not be offered every semester.
- It is recommended that students meet with their advisor for assistance in selecting courses.
- Fully matriculated students are not required to maintain either full-time or part-time status; if desired, students may vary the number of credits they take from one semester to the next.
- In addition to the fall and spring semesters, students may take courses in one or both of two summer sessions.