

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION

Application Form

Complete the Application for Graduate Admission in its entirety online at liu.edu/brooklyn/apply or complete this. Please note that certain programs require supplemental applications and instructions. Please refer to the Graduate Programs and Application Requirements online at liu.edu/brooklyn/graduate or view the graduate bulletin at liu.edu/brooklyn for the most detailed information about your program of interest.

Application Fee

Enclose with the paper application a non-refundable application fee of $50.00 made payable to Long Island University. (Attach the check to the application form.)

Instructions for Mailing Your Credentials

Students are to submit their application and credentials for admissions evaluation, along with credential cover sheet, to:
LIU Brooklyn, Admissions Processing Center, 15 Dan Road, Suite 102 • Canton, MA 02021

Do NOT send slides, photographs, portfolios, CDs, DVDs, awards, scholarships, newspaper articles, checks or cash with application materials. Do NOT send GRE, GMAT or other professional graduate school test results.

Transcript(s)

Applicants to LIU Brooklyn must submit official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended showing all courses; grades; and degrees received, if any. Applicants should request that the transcript(s) be returned to them in a sealed envelope with the signature of an authorized official written across the sealed flap to be included in your admissions package. Schools not providing this service may mail the official transcript directly to the Graduate Admissions Processing Center. Photocopies, student copies, transcripts printed from university websites and transcripts received in opened envelopes are not considered official.

Personal Statement

The personal statement should be double-spaced and typewritten on a separate sheet attached to the form. Your statement should describe your reason for pursuing graduate study in your proposed area of study, your personal and academic background, relevant experience and your professional goals. You should mail the personal statement to the Admissions Processing Center. Be sure to include your name, contact information, campus of interest, and program to which you are applying.

Letters of Recommendation

Letters of recommendation should be from an academic source, preferably a professor or academic official who is familiar with your academic history and achievement. If you have been out of school for several years, professional recommendations may come from your employer or supervisor. Applicants should request that the recommendation(s) be returned to them in a sealed envelope with the signature of the recommender written across the sealed flap to be included in your admissions package. If preferred, a recommender may mail the recommendation letter directly to the Graduate Admissions Processing Center. Please refer to the Graduate Programs and Application Requirements pages to determine how many letters are required for your specific program. Forms may be downloaded at liu.edu/brooklyn/forms.

Graduate Admissions Tests

Please refer to application requirements on the LIU website to determine if any standardized tests are required for your specific program. Official scores of any required standardized test, such as the GRE, GMAT, TOEFL or IELTS must be directly reported to LIU Brooklyn by the appropriate testing service. The campus's Educational Testing Service Code is 2369. The LIU Brooklyn ETS Code for Physical Therapy (ptcas) is 0333.

Additional Materials

Submit any additional materials that are required by your specific program with your application packet to your academic department.

Please keep a copy of the completed application form and personal statement for your records. All credentials and documents submitted in support of your application become the property of LIU Brooklyn and cannot be returned or photocopied for the applicant.
